

Our floor pans are mainly produced according to customer specifications and are made from steel, aluminum and stainless steel.

Floor pans are powder coated with anti corrosion paint, from internal side primed with epoxy. Can be delivered with different types of draining system, of our production and design or customer specification.

Our products are produced according to our projects and documentation or customer's specification.